Message from the Principal

Welcome back to the 2015 school year. The school would like to welcome 2 new students Jasmeet and Tayla to the Collins Creek family. We also would like to welcome 2 new staff - Joy Muller who will be teaching and Tania Harvey who will be undertaking the SAMS position.

Alana will be spreading her magic with her ukulele on Monday and Tuesday and Friday mornings in the classrooms and library, Mr. Harley will be taking responsibility for the school’s beautiful grounds on Thursday’s, Joy will be teaching on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and Tania will be undertaking administration duties on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

What fantastic support the students at CCPS have!

Newsletters

For Term 1 newsletters will be sent home on Wednesday’s.

Homework and Computer Access

The school is looking into electronic homework and would like to gauge how many students have access to either an iPad or a computer. Could you please answer the attached form and return to the school.

COLOURSS

The school is part of the learning community of COLOURSS which consists of 6 small schools. COLOURSS provides the students with social and educational experiences across a range of key learning areas and share in a range of activities throughout the term. This often involves travelling away from the school and we rely on and appreciate help from parents in transportation.

COLOURSS Swimming Carnival

COLOURSS is holding their swimming carnival in Week 3, Friday the 13th.

Please indicate if your child is interested in attending or competing.
