Message from the Principal

The students will be travelling over to Barkers Vale next Tuesday the 10th March (Week 7) at 1.00 for a travelling performance. The show is called ‘To Be or what To Be’ and will cost $5.00 per student (please notice the price difference from last newsletter). Students will be travelling by private vehicle either in Ms Carter or Tamara Tiffin’s car and students will then be delivered to the Kyogle High School where they will catch the high school bus home. Please be aware this will get the students home later than normal. If parents have inquiries about this please ring the school.

Kyogle’s Semi Tones Choir

The students have been invited to join the adult choir in a performance at the Kyogle town hall on Sunday the 31st May. Students if they are going to participate will need to attend a choir practice at Kyogle Public School Hall in Groom Street on Friday 13th March from 9.30-10am. Parents will need to transport their own student into the practice session on the 13th. Please send in the attached form stating if you would like your child to participate.

COLOURSS Art Exhibition

This year is our triennial art exhibition at the Roxy Gallery. Jenny Kitchener from Afterlee School will be attending our school on Friday the 13th to hold an art workshop in preparation for this exhibition.

Music

The school’s music program has resumed and students will have an opportunity to have personal tuition in marimbas and a musical instrument of their choice. Mr Theo Sison will be undertaking this program. The cost for this program is $5.00 a week per student and can be paid weekly or by the term.
