All Welcome

Hi ALL :)

Both birds have had special attention from us as we treat them like family & don't see them as just birds but as the beautiful souls they really are & the magic they have taught us. They love the special attention & love one on one time. They taught us how they love to be patted & scratched. Both birds have a very amazing unique personalities & are very magic in there own

We have a big cage & a little cage which we transport them around with that comes with them plus all the things that are in the cage. We also have bird food and a few other things that come with them too.

We are looking for someone who can look after them & cherish them the way we do :) & give them a WHOLE lot of LOVE

So if you are interested please give us a call for a chat or txt message on the following number.
